IMPORTANT CHANGES IN RECEIVING YOUR BC STUDENT LOAN FUNDING

Due to requirements for Ministry compliance, SFU has implemented changes effective Fall 2010 which may delay the release of your BC Student Loan funding.

PROGRAM OF STUDY MATCH

When completing your online student loan application, you must ensure you select the correct program of study from the drop down menu. The program you select on your student loan application must match the program you are registered in at SFU.

If you are unsure what program you are in, login to the Student Information System (sis.sfu.ca). Under the header Academics, click Advising Transcript.

In the second section of your advising transcript (Student Programs), you will find the program you are currently registered in at SFU.

You must select the program with the exact same name from the drop down menu on your online student loan application.

NOTE: If these do not match, SFU will be unable to provide confirmation of your full-time enrolment to StudentAid BC resulting in a delay in the release of your student loan funding. Your funding will not be released until your information is corrected.

REPEATING COURSES

In accordance with StudentAid BC policy, if you are repeating a course solely to improve the grade, you cannot include this course as part of your full-time course load requirement. This means you must be enrolled in 9 units or more, in addition to the course you are repeating, to be eligible to receive your student loan funding.

If you previously passed the course you are repeating, but did not obtain the grade required to proceed to the next level, consideration may be given by StudentAid BC on an appeal basis.
