This award is for Canadian aboriginal students entering the University from high school or college who have a living connection to their aboriginal community. Up to a maximum of eight awards are awarded each year, and the total value of each award is $2,500. This award cannot be held in conjunction with any other SFU entrance awards or scholarships. To be eligible for the award, applicants must have a minimum final admission average of 80% from a Canadian high school or 3.0 from a B.C. college.

Awards will be granted on the basis of demonstrated excellence in one or more of the following five categories, each equally important.

- academic achievement
- service to your secondary school or college
- community service
- cultural contribution
- and/or evidence of overcoming personal and/or systemic barriers

STEP 1

All applicants must apply for admission to SFU at www.sfu.ca/futurestudents, to receive an SFU student number.

STEP 2

Mail this application and supporting documents to SFU at the address below by the following deadlines. Packages postmarked after the deadline will not be accepted.

- Fall term—June 15
- Spring term—October 15
- Summer term—February 15

Send us these documents:

- this paper application form, original or photocopied, completed and signed.
- one reference letter from an Aboriginal organization or First Nations band
- a personal statement outlining your community connection.
- a copy of your final transcript (photocopy accepted).

All of the above documents must be fastened together and submitted in a single large envelope. Documents must not arrive separately. Mail your package to the address at the bottom of this form by the deadline.
