COMMUNICATION

Most CMNS undergrad courses are restricted 50% or more to approved CMNS Honours, Major, Joint Major, Extended Minor, CMNS Minor, and/or Dialogue Minor students. They are marked with an * beside the lecture or seminar or section (e.g., *D100 as such beside D100, E100, C100, etc.). Students who are unable to enroll themselves into a particular course, even though there appears to be space, or if a course requires special permission, should consult with a CMNS advisor as soon as possible. 100 and 200-level courses are 50% restricted. 300 and 400-level courses are 75% restricted to approved CMNS/DIAL students. These restrictions are removed after the first 3 weeks of enrollment (e.g., 31 March for Summer 2012 enrollment). Publishing is now managed by that program, downtown. Advisor is Jo-Anne Ray (ray.sfu.ca 778-782-5242, room HCC 3576). J100 sections of courses are completely restricted to students in the Nights or Weekends (NoW) cohort program, until 31 March 2012. Then, if space exists, other students may be added in from the waitlists. Contact a CMNS Advisor to be placed on the waitlist, if you experience difficulty doing so yourself. Contact a CMNS advisor for information on how to become an approved CMNS or Dialogue Minor student, if so desired -- email: cmnsad sfu.ca, or schedule an appointment with the General Office (cmns@sfu.ca 778-782-3117). Course outlines for all CMNS courses are placed on our website (www.cmns.sfu.ca) as soon as possible. Samples of past outlines are also on the website, and available from our General Office (K9671). Contact 778-782-3687 or 778-782-3117 for info. C100 courses are by distance education, which, if there are no space restrictions or prerequisite requirements set by the subject department, are available to all eligible students. Course outlines noting the requirements (including computer requirements) are available at the Centre for Online and Distance Education, or by calling 778-782-3524 or 1-800-663-1411 (toll free in Canada) or at www.sfu.ca/cde. For distance education courses only (C100 section), please contact CODE at codehelp@sfu.ca if you are unable to enrol because of an exam conflict. There is a $50 charge for scheduled exam changes, for Distance Education courses.

STATISTICS

Courses for Further Credit No student may complete, for further credit, any course offered by the Department of Statistics and Actuarial Science which is a prerequisite for a course the student has already completed with a grade of C- or higher without permission of the department. Undergraduate Course Sequencing Credit for STAT courses can depend on the order that the courses are completed. There are three kinds of courses offered. Introductory courses STAT 100 Service courses STAT 101, 201, 203, 301, 302, 403. Mainstream courses STAT 270, 285, 300, 330, 350, 380, 400, 410, 430, 450, 460. Upon completing any service or mainstream course, credit may not be subsequently obtained for STAT 100. Upon completing any mainstream course, credit may not be obtained for any service course. An exception to this rule is that both STAT 302 and STAT 403 may be completed for credit after having completed STAT 270. Distance Education: Distance Education courses that are marked as C100 courses are available to all eligible students if there are no space restrictions or prerequisite requirements set by the course department. Course outlines noting the requirements (including computer requirements) are available at the Centre for Online and Distance Education, or by calling 778-782-3524 or 1-800-663-1411 (toll free in Canada) or at www.sfu.ca/cde .

Summer 2012 exams August 7 to 16, 2012

CONFLICTS

It is your responsibility to ensure that you do not enrol in classes with conflicting exam times. If you have a good reason to enrol in classes with conflicting exam times, you may request the permission of the departments offering those classes.

NOTE: if you have an exam at one location (e.g. Burnaby Mountain) followed immediately by an exam at another location (e.g. Harbour Centre), please report this to the Departmental Assistants as soon as possible. Advance arrangements will be made for you to write both exams at a single location.

ONLINE AND DISTANCE EDUCATION

If you are enrolling in a distance education course, please refer to the Centre for Online and Distance Education (CODE) website (www.code.sfu.ca) for important information.

If you live on the BC Mainland, south of Squamish or west of Chilliwack, you must come to the Burnaby campus to write your distance education exam(s). Distance education midterms are scheduled in the evening and the time is noted in the class schedule at sis.sfu.ca. If a distance education midterm conflicts with another SFU class, you may contact CODE and request that your distance education exam be rescheduled.

If you are unable to enrol in a distance education class because the distance education final exam (see schedule below) conflicts with the final exam for another class in which you are enrolled, you may contact CODE and request that the distance education exam be rescheduled. If rescheduling is approved, you will be enrolled in the distance education class. Note: there is a $50 fee for each rescheduled distance education exam. For information call 778.782.3524 or 1.800.663.1411 (toll free in Canada) or email codehelp@sfu.ca.

NOTE: if you choose to write your exam(s) outside of North America you must contact the Centre for Online and Distance Education to receive approval.

The final examination schedule is available at sis.sfu.ca. Please note that room information will be posted online no later than Monday, June 25, 2012.

Official changes to the final examination schedule will be on sis.sfu.ca, and posted on paper at the Burnaby, Harbour Centre and Surrey locations as they occur.

NOTE – If an exam change is indicated elsewhere than in these locations, for example on the door to the examination room, and is not posted at the official locations or at sis.sfu.ca, the student must verify the change at the department's general office or with the instructor of the class. If it is not possible to verify a change, the student must attend the examination at the originally scheduled time.
